

Smart Ad Viewer

Help Guide

Introduction

'Smart Ad Viewer' is a software to facilitate you reading advertisements on emails: Easy, Fast, and Amazing experience for viewing links in emails. The user friendly interface is specially designed to let you easily get started with email browsing. Features like support for multiple users, next link, know more, inbox status, and activity log make it very convenient to use the software. For your support, this help guide documents how simply one can start using the software. For any further query, please give us the chance to help you by writing to us at support@smartadviewer.com.

User Interface

The following figure describes the different regions that can be seen in software user interface:

